

O our Lord, the Hearer of all voices, the Knower of all hidden matters, the Answerer of all supplications, the Fulfiller of all needs, the Creator of the heavens and the earth!

O You who possess the needs of those who ask and know the secrets of those who remain silent,

O Allah, send Your peace, blessings, and mercy upon the Seal of the Prophets and the best of the Messengers.

O Allah, grant us well-being in our religion, in our worldly life, and in our bodies.

O Allah, we seek refuge in You from affliction and hardship; bestow upon us continuous well-being and protection.

O Allah, do not let our enemies rejoice over our afflictions, and make the Glorious Qur'an a cure and healing for us. Remove from us every harm and distress that pains or troubles us.

O Allah, we seek refuge in You from the evil eyes of the envious, from the jealousy of the jealous, from the sorcery of the sorcerers, from the plotting of the deceivers, and from the malice of those who wait for our downfall.

O Allah, place between us and them an impenetrable barrier and a strong fortress so that they cannot reach us or overpower us.

O Allah, You are mightier than them in power and greater than them in authority—so protect us from their evil and keep their harm away from us.

O our Lord, we have turned to You, relied upon You, and sought Your protection from every evil of humans and jinn, whether near or far, male or female.

O Allah, shield us from those who plot against us and extend their hands in harm toward us.

O Allah, we ask You for ourselves, for the Muslims—men and women—and for all who are present in our gathering or have affirmed our supplication. Whoever among them is suffering from illness or burdened by distress, whose affliction has been prolonged and has occupied their thoughts by day and night—

O Allah, grant them swift healing and relief soon, by Your mercy, O Most Merciful of the merciful!

O Allah, You know the ailments of our hearts and bodies; You know our struggles and pains.

O Allah, transform every illness into a remedy, every affliction into well-being and healing.

O Allah, we seek refuge in You from every disease that afflicts the children of Adam and the daughters of Eve.

O Allah, keep us and our families in goodness. We seek refuge in You from leprosy, insanity, chronic diseases, and every severe illness, O Most Merciful, O Most Compassionate.

O Allah, grant healing to those afflicted with cancer; restore them to health and well-being in their homes. Let Your cure overcome their illness, O Subtle One, O Bestower of gifts.

O Allah, suffice us against every worry and every trouble of this world and the Hereafter, by Your mercy, O Most Merciful of the merciful.
