

Glory be to Allah, and all praise is due to Allah, and there is no god but Allah, and Allah is the Greatest.

Praise be to Allah, who created and shaped His creation, who decreed the conditions of His servants in wealth and poverty, who sent down the rain and split open the earth for vegetation.

Praise be to Allah, who grants reward to the obedient and covers the sins of the transgressors.

Glory be to Him, He knows what is above the heavens and what is beneath the earth, and nothing escapes His knowledge—not even the crawling of an ant in the darkness of the night.

O Allah, send Your peace and blessings upon our Prophet Muhammad, the best of creation.

O Allah, make us and our families among those who are led to Jannah in groups. Fill our hearts with joy in Your presence, our tongues with Your remembrance, and our limbs with Your service.

We seek refuge in You from disgraceful deeds, from companions who harm us, from ambitions that distract us, from poverty that makes us forget You, and from wealth that leads us to arrogance.

O Allah, we seek refuge in You from the deception of the deceivers, the oppression of the oppressors, the schemes of the plotters, the envy of the envious, the sorcery of the sorcerers, the injustice of the wicked, the hypocrisy of the hypocrites, and the deceit of the pretentious, O Lord of the worlds.

O Allah, forgive us for what has passed of this month, overlook our shortcomings and misdeeds, and help us in what remains of it.

O our Lord, make us among those who are freed from the Fire in this night and in every night, write us among those whom You love, and grant us protection from Your punishment.

O Allah, You are the Most Forgiving, and You love to forgive—so forgive us.

O Allah, You are the Most Forgiving, and You love to forgive—so forgive us.

O Allah, bless us in the last ten nights, strengthen our resolve and aspirations, and make us among those who attain Laylatul Qadr, those who succeed with immense rewards and blessings.
Make us among those who win Your pleasure, those who hope for Your mercy and forgiveness.

O Allah, draw us closer to You in these nights, grant us happiness in nearness to You, complete Your blessings upon us, and shower us with Your boundless grace, for You are the Most Generous, the Bestower of Gifts.

O Allah, grant us sincere repentance before death, comfort at the time of death, and Paradise and bliss after death.

O Allah, we seek refuge in You from worry and sadness, from weakness and laziness, from cowardice and miserliness, and from the burden of debt and the oppression of men.

O Allah, we seek refuge in You from the oppression of men.

O Allah, we seek refuge in You from the oppression of men.

O Allah, we do not have control over our own benefit or harm, nor over life, death, or resurrection.

We cannot take anything except what You grant us, nor can we protect ourselves except through Your protection.

O Allah, guide us to what You love in words and actions, and protect us from heedlessness and false hopes.

O Allah, we ask You, by Your generosity, Your bounty, and Your greatness, to show us the beauty of Your power in the righteousness of our souls, our parents, our spouses, our children, our families, and all those we love, O our Lord.

O Allah, grant us sincere repentance that purifies our hearts, our souls, our bodies, our deeds, and our records.

O Allah, make us among those who are pleased with You, and whom You are pleased with, those who accept Your decree in its sweetness and its bitterness, its ease and its difficulty.

Make us like the leaves of a tree, indifferent to which side they fall, except that, O our Lord, we ask You for forgiveness and well-being.

We ask You for the kindest, most beautiful, and easiest of destinies, O Lord of the worlds.

Ameen.
