

Glory be to Allah, all praise is due to Allah, there is no god but Allah, and Allah is the Greatest. There is no power nor strength except with Allah.

O our Lord! You are the One Who created Your Prophet 'Isa (Jesus) without a father, and You granted victory to Your Prophet Musa (Moses) over the one who claimed, "I am the Lord." You delivered Your Prophet Yunus (Jonah) from the darkness and Yusuf (Joseph) from the well. And You loved our Prophet Muhammad ﷺ with a love that has no comparison. O our Lord! Grant us freedom from the fire and free the necks of those we love.

Grant us blessings beyond what we hope for and what we desire, by Your mercy, O Most Merciful of the merciful. By Your mercy, O Most Merciful of the merciful. O our Lord! The stars have faded, the eyes have rested, but You are the Ever-Living, the Sustainer of all, neither slumber nor sleep overtakes You. O our Lord! There is no tranquility except with You, no generosity except from You, no safety except in Your presence, and no happiness except in nearness to You. Glorified are You! Pardon is more beloved to You than punishment, and forgiveness is dearer to You than reckoning.

O Allah! Our good deeds are from Your grace, and our sins are from Your decree. So, bestow upon us what You have given us to cover what You have decreed. It is by Your majesty that none obeys You except by Your will, and none disobeys You except by Your knowledge. O Allah! You are the Most Forgiving, You love to forgive, so forgive us. O Allah! You are the Most Forgiving, You love to forgive, so forgive us.

O our Lord! Treat us with Your kindness, treat us with Your grace and generosity, and protect us with Your mercy and forgiveness. Do not deprive us because of our sins, and do not turn us away because of our shortcomings. By Your mercy, O Most Merciful of the merciful! O You Who responds to supplications, O You Who forgives sins, Your servants have come to You from all directions, seeking Your face and Your pleasure. They desire none but You.

O our Lord! You have said: "O My servants, if the first of you and the last of you, the humans of you and the jinn of you, were to stand together in one place and ask of Me, and I were to give every one of them what they asked, that would not decrease My dominion in the slightest."

O Allah! Our greatest wish and the ultimate goal of our supplication is to be freed from the fire, by Your mercy, O Most Merciful of the merciful. O Allah! Do not make us fuel for it, nor make it our abode or resting place. By Your mercy, O Most Merciful of the merciful! O Allah! The leaders and the noble among Your servants, when someone seeks their protection, they grant it. And You are the Lord of the leaders and the noble! O Allah! Grant us protection from the fire.

O our Lord! We seek refuge in You lest others attain freedom from the fire while we remain enslaved. Far be it from Your noble face to reject us! We seek refuge in You from distance after You have brought us close, and from being hated after You have loved us, and from disgrace after You have honored us. O our Lord! You are the One before Whom foreheads bow and necks humble. You know everything about us, and nothing is hidden from You. You are capable of everything.

O Allah! Grant us Your forgiveness in the morning and the evening. O Allah! Grant every one of us their request and fulfill every one of us their needs. O Allah! Return to each of us our joy and happiness. O our Lord! We have no more nights of hope left except this one. O Allah! Bless us in it, grant us the best of what is in it, make it one of our happiest nights, and fulfill all our desires in it.

O our Lord! O All-Knowing, O All-Aware, O Possessor of Majesty and Honor! We entrust You with our most beautiful nights and days. O our Lord! Who is accepted so that we may congratulate them, and who is rejected so that we may console them? O Allah! Do not leave among us, nor with us, nor between us, a wretched one who is deprived or rejected. O Allah! Nor a wretched woman, nor a deprived woman, nor a rejected woman. By Your mercy, O Most Merciful of the merciful!

O Allah! Grant us after this fasting, continued fasting, and after this standing in prayer, continued standing, and after this supplication, continued supplication.

O Allah! Combine for us well-being and a long life, guidance and continuous protection. Bring Ramadan back to us for many years and numerous seasons, while we and all the Muslims enjoy health, well-being, and a happy life. O Allah! Do not make this Ramadan our last Ramadan, nor this standing in prayer our last standing, nor these days our last days. O our Lord! Indeed, the heart grieves, and the eyes weep, and we are saddened by the departure of Ramadan. O Allah! Keep us steadfast in obedience and faith during and after Ramadan, and grant us the ultimate conclusion of piety and excellence. Write for us Your pleasure and satisfaction, and admit us among Your servants who are accepted.

O Allah! O Praiseworthy, O Glorious! O Praiseworthy, O Glorious! Bless us with more of Your bounties. O Allah! If You honor us with standing in prayer tomorrow, then for You is eternal praise. O Allah! Make our ending a fragrant ending, and the best. Return us to our homes as pure as the day our mothers gave birth to us—free of small and great sins, free of grudges and malice. O Allah! Purify and reform our outward and inward selves. O Allah! Our Prophet forgave and freed, and You are the Lord of our Prophet. O Allah! So, pardon us, set us free, and forgive us for what has passed. Return to You those who strayed and make us among those who attained Your pardon and success.

O our Lord! We have learned that forgiveness is among the greatest of gifts, so we ask You for forgiveness and accompany it with well-being. We ask You for all the good that Your knowledge encompasses, and we seek refuge in You from all the evil that Your knowledge encompasses. O Allah! Have mercy on us on this night with the tears of the weepers and the humility of the submissive, and make us sincere and truthful in all our deeds for Your sake.

O Allah! Make us among those who sincerely call upon You, and You answer them. Give value and honor to our hope in You, and keep us steadfast on the religion and the straight path, by Your mercy, O Most Merciful of the merciful!

O Allah! We ask You at the conclusion of our supplication for special kindness to us, our parents, and our families. Grant us complete protection and continuous well-being for us, our parents, and our families. Grant us lasting freedom from sins and disobedience, O Merciful, O Compassionate! O Allah! Return us to our homes safe, successful, accepted, forgiven, and rejoicing with Your grace and mercy. Return us to our homes as pure as the day our mothers gave birth to us—free from small and great sins, free from grudges and malice. O Allah! Purify and reform our outward and inward selves.

O Allah! Bless and grant peace upon our Prophet Muhammad ﷺ. O Allah! Through sending blessings upon him, expand our hearts, ease our affairs, relieve our worries, remove our anxieties, forgive our sins, settle our debts, rectify our condition, fulfill our hopes, accept our repentance, wash away our misdeeds, support our evidence, purify our tongues, and grant us comfort from loneliness.

O Allah! Include in our supplication our parents, the absent, and all those who say “Ameen,” by Your mercy, O Most Merciful of the merciful.

O Allah, provide for those whose days have been long and who remain without work — those who strive but do not find success, and knock on doors that remain closed. O Allah, open for them a door of lawful provision that will free them from dependence on others, and make it a source of comfort and pride for themselves and their families.

O Allah, ease the path for all those who long for marriage but face difficulties, those whose years have passed without finding a righteous spouse, neither a husband who brings them peace nor a wife who brings them joy. O Allah, grant them a blessed and righteous marriage that You love and are pleased with. Unite their hearts in Your lawful bond, and bless them in their union and their lives.

O Allah, grant relief to every distressed person, ease to every one in hardship, glad tidings to every one waiting, an answer to every supplication, and guidance to every confused soul. O Most Generous, O Bestower of gifts.

O Allah, send Your peace, blessings, and mercy upon our Prophet Muhammad, his family, and all his companions.

O Allah, in these blessed nights, we raise our hands in prayer and weep before You, O Most Merciful of those who show mercy.

O Allah, heal every sick person struggling with illness, striving on the path to recovery. O Allah, heal those who have been exhausted by cancer, whose bodies have been weakened by treatments, and whose strength has been drained by pain. O Lord of the worlds, send down healing from You — a healing that leaves no trace of illness.

O Allah, make this healing a source of peace and relief for their bodies, comfort and strength for their hearts, and support for their families.

O Allah, mend their brokenness, strengthen their weakness, grant them patience through their trials, and make what they endure a means of erasing their sins and elevating their ranks. Open for them the doors of hope and mercy.
