

O You who are the Lord of everything.

O You who are the God of everything.

O You who are the Creator of everything.

O You who are above everything.

O You who were before everything.

O You who remain after everything.

O You who know everything.

O You who have power over everything.

You who fashioned and made everything.

You who alone remain, while everything else fades away. O Allah, we ask You first for Your pleasure, and then for the pleasure of our parents.

O Allah, forgive us, forgive our parents, forgive our grandparents, and forgive everyone who has a right over us.

O Allah, make us among the children our parents love the most.

Make us close to their hearts.

Make us the ones they feel comforted by, the ones they trust, the ones they are proud of.

Grant us the blessing of always checking on them and never forgetting them.

O Allah, do not let money distract us from our parents.

Do not let friends, spouses, or children make us neglect them.

Let our hearts always turn back to our parents with love, care, and mercy.

O Allah, if any of our parents are carrying worry in their hearts, lift it from them.

If any of them are struggling with debt, ease their burden.

If any of them are sick, grant them healing that leaves no pain behind.

And if they are alive, bless their deeds and grant us and them a beautiful ending.

O Allah, for the parents who have returned to You—our mothers and our fathers—make their graves places of light, peace, and comfort.

Make their graves gardens from the gardens of Paradise.

O Allah, for the one who still has a father, help them honor him, respect him, and be gentle with him.

And for the one who still has a mother, soften their heart toward her.

Fill their heart with love, patience, and gratitude.

Let her always be on their mind, day and night.

O Allah, protect us from ever hurting our parents or being ungrateful to them.

Gather us with our parents and our families in Jannah, with no one missing.

O Allah, if any of our parents are facing hardship in their graves right now,

bring them comfort, widen their graves, and protect them from punishment.

Cover them in Your mercy and honor,

O Creator of the heavens and the earth.

O Allah, just as we raised our hands tonight and made du‘ā’ for our parents,

free us from the Fire.

Free us from the Fire.

Free us from the Fire.
