

Our Lord...

You are near to everyone who calls upon You.

You are gentle and patient even with those who disobey You.

You are independent of those who forget You.

We ask You, our Lord — and we ask no one but You.

O Allah, send Your peace and blessings upon our Prophet Muhammad — the best of those who called upon You, praised You, and spoke to You.

O Allah, we are asking You tonight, so give us by Your mercy, O Most Merciful.

O Allah, we ask You for all good — immediate and future — what we know of it and what we do not know.

And we seek refuge in You from all evil — immediate and future — what we know of it and what we do not know.

O Allah, we ask You for Jannah and everything that brings us closer to it in words and actions.

And we seek refuge in You from the Fire and everything that brings us closer to it.

And we ask You to make every decree You write for us something good.

O Allah, grant us guidance, piety, purity, and contentment.

Grant us words, actions, and beliefs that You love and are pleased with.

O Allah, we ask You from Your favor and Your mercy — for no one owns them except You.

O Allah, grant us lasting faith, a humble heart, beneficial knowledge, and true certainty.

We ask You for well-being.

Complete well-being.

Lasting well-being.

And gratitude for that well-being.

O Allah, grant us and all Muslim men and women near relief, quick victory, healing from every illness, and independence from needing anyone besides You.

O Allah, grant us the best of our mornings and evenings, the best of our coming and going, and the best in everything You decree.

O Allah, grant us good expectations of You in every situation.

Grant us sincerity in intention and true reliance upon You.

O Allah, help us do good deeds, stay away from wrong, and love the poor and needy.

And if You decree trials for Your servants, take us back to You without being tested in our faith, without disgrace, and without regret.

We ask You for what brings Your mercy, what guarantees Your forgiveness, protection from every sin, gain from every good deed, success in Jannah, and salvation from the Fire.

O Allah, grant us a kindness from You that never disappears, and hope in You that never fails.

You know what is hidden in our hearts. Nothing is hidden from You.

O Allah, grant us a gentleness that opens our chests, lights our hearts, purifies our minds, refreshes our senses, and blesses for us what is in the land and sea, O Creator of the heavens and the earth.

O Allah, we ask You by Your Greatest Name — the Name that when You are called by it, You answer — grant us safety, safety, safety...

Safety from tightness in our hearts,
from hardship in this world,
from the darkness of the grave,
and from the distress of the Day of Judgment.

O Allah, make us in this month among those You free from the Fire — and our parents, our families, and those we love.

And O Allah, any servant of Yours — on land, at sea, or in the sky — who asked You for good in this life and the next and You gave it to them —

O Allah, include us in what they asked for.

Grant us what You granted them.

And include them in what we ask You for,
and grant them what You grant us.

O Lord of all worlds.
