

All praise belongs to Allah —
the One who honored us and gave generously,
who blessed us abundantly,
who protected us from harm
and turned away every hardship from us.

Glory be to Him —

He did not take anyone as a witness when He created the heavens, nor did He need any helper when He brought life into existence.

Exalted is He — the Most Great God.

O Allah, send Your peace and blessings upon our Prophet Muhammad.

O Allah, our Lord and our Master,
we asked You to allow us to reach Ramadan — and You did not turn us away.

We asked You to give us more time — and You granted it.

We turned back to You after being distant — and You accepted us.

There is nothing we asked from You except that You gave.

You kept us breathing.

You preserved us.

You gave us health while many others were tested.

To You belongs all praise — for Your blessings, for well-being,
for Your generosity, and for giving us more time.

O Allah, just as You have brought us to this Ramadan, bring us close to Your mercy — the mercy that encompasses everything.

Our Lord,

We come to You tonight praising You, thanking You,
speaking well of You — but we also come tired,

burdened, exhausted, seeking forgiveness, regretful.

So accept us, O Lord of the worlds.

O Allah, just as You honored us with Ramadan, honor us with Paradise, with Your pleasure,

and with freedom from the Fire.

O Most Merciful, O Most Compassionate.

O Allah, make this year one of the best years for us and for all Muslims.

Purify our sustenance, our words, our actions, and our intentions.

Improve our character. Let ease overcome our difficulties.

Let Your richness remove our poverty.

Let Your forgiveness erase our sins.

Let Your relief remove our worries.

Fulfill our hopes. Heal our sick.

Have mercy on our deceased.

Restore our rights.

Protect us from those who intend harm toward us.

O Allah, heal those who longed to fast this Ramadan but were unable.

Grant them both reward and healing.

O Allah, have mercy on our deceased —

those who left a deep mark in our hearts and an empty space in our lives.

Especially our fathers and our mothers.

They have been placed in their graves,

but they remain alive in our hearts.

Our hearts grieve, our eyes shed tears,

and we are truly saddened by the loss of those we love.

O Gatherer of the first and the last,

gather us with them in Your Gardens —

the Gardens of everlasting bliss.

O Allah, our comfort and our consolation is that they have returned to You — and we never lose hope in the goodness of a Lord who smiles upon His servants.

O Allah, help Muslims and relieve the suffering of the oppressed everywhere.

O Allah, be with those who are weak and harmed.

Be their protector, their supporter, and their source of strength.

O Allah, grant victory to the oppressed in Gaza.

Grant them patience in their hardship.

Grant them firmness in their faith.

Protect their children.

Heal their wounded.

Have mercy on their martyrs.

Replace their fear with security and their pain with relief.

Oh Allah bless the Muslims everywhere.
