

There is no god but Allah.

Upon this truth we live, upon this truth we die, and with this truth we will meet Allah.

Glory be to You, O Protecting Friend, O Most Praiseworthy, O Originator, O Restorer.

Our Lord, whoever is not guided by Your Book is lost.

Whoever turns away from Your path slips and falls.

And whoever seeks honor through anyone besides You will only be humiliated.

Glory be to the Forbearing One who does not rush,
the All-Knowing who is never unaware,
the Watchful who never overlooks,
the Generous who never withholds.

Glory be to Him, mighty and majestic.

O Allah, send Your peace and blessings upon our Prophet Muhammad and his family.

O Allah, we seek refuge in You from speaking falsehood,
from falling into immorality,
and from being surrounded by delusion.

O Allah, we seek refuge in You from rising prices, disease, usury, and zina.

And we seek refuge in You from trials and evil tribulations,
the ones we can see and the ones we cannot.

O Allah, we seek refuge in You from sin and crushing debt.
And we seek refuge in You from the evil of every creature whose forelock is in Your hand.

O Allah, we ask You for gratitude in times of ease,
patience in times of hardship,
healing in the middle of affliction,
acceptance in what we do,
and pardon when we finally meet You,

O Hearer of every du‘ā’.

O Allah, let our joy and happiness be found in obeying You.

Let all of our affairs be in what pleases You.

O Allah, protect us in our nights and in our days,
in our staying and in our traveling,
in our lives and at our deaths.

O Allah, keep us always under Your covering.

Bless us with Your love.

Let us enjoy closeness to You.

Purify our hearts.

Forgive our sins.

And fulfill our needs.

O Allah, grant us well-being.

Keep us wrapped in well-being.

Surround us with well-being.

Clothe us in well-being.

Do not deprive us of well-being.

For You are the Lord of all well-being,

O Ever-Living, O Sustainer,

O Ever-Living, O Sustainer.

O Allah, whoever is with us in this gathering,

or whoever said “ameen” to our du‘ā’,

or whoever saw us—

if any of them is sick,

or has someone sick that they love,

then O Allah, heal them and heal their loved one.

Grant them health and grant their loved one health,

by Your mercy, O Most Merciful of those who show mercy.

O Allah, make us tonight among the people of freedom,

the people of Your covering,

the people of pardon,

and the people of well-being—

those who recite, those who listen,

those who make du‘ā’, and those who say ameen.

O Allah, include our parents, our families,

and all Muslim men and women.

Our Lord, Your well-being is wider and greater than anything we could ask for.

O Allah, just as You gathered us tonight standing before You,
then honor us, our Lord,
with the best and most beautiful of what You have.

Gather us in Jannah.

Make us among those whom You look upon and they look upon You,

those whom You smile upon and they rejoice in You,

those whose provision in Paradise comes morning and evening.

Our Lord, if we have fallen short, then You are the Most Merciful.

And if we have done any good, then it is only by Your favor, O
Most Generous.

Our Lord, bring us back to You in a beautiful return...
