Glory be to the One who is described with the attributes of beauty,
the One praised with the qualities of majesty, the One far above anything that resembles Him, far above نقص, far above comparison.
No minds can fully comprehend Him.
No imagination can truly reach Him.
Nothing among creation is like Him.
He is Ever-Living and never dies.
He is the One who sustains all things and never sleeps.
And it does not befit Him to sleep.
He lowers the scales and raises them.
His veil is light.
If He were to uncover it, the radiance of His Face would burn everything His sight reaches of His creation.
O Allah, send Your peace and blessings upon our Prophet Muhammad,
the Imam of the two qiblahs,
the master of mankind and jinn,
and the grandfather of Al-Hasan and Al-Husayn.
Our Lord...
Your generosity guided us to You.
Your kindness brought us closer to You.

We complain to You of what is never hidden from You.

And we ask You for what is never difficult for You.

Your servants, men and women, have come to You.

They are standing before You.

The needs are many.

The needs are many.

And You are the One who fulfills all needs.

O Allah, on this night of hope,

do not leave for us any need that pleases You and brings good for us

except that You make it easy,

You fulfill it,

and You bring it to completion.

And the first of our needs, O Lord of Majesty, is that You free our necks from the Fire.

Our Lord... our Lord...

We have fallen short in our fasting.

We have fallen short in our night prayer.

We have fallen short in our recitation.

We have fallen short in our giving.

We have fallen short in all our affairs.

Sleep has overcome our days.

Our worldly life has distracted us from our Hereafter.

We loved wealth too much.

So we envied one another.

We developed hatred toward one another.

We cut one another off.

We hide from people, but we do not hide from You.

We put our desires before Your pleasure.

And we know that whatever has struck us is because of what our own hands have earned,

yet You forgive so much.

Our Lord…

Our comfort is that we have a Lord who overlooks our stumbles and forgives our slips.

A Lord who accepts the little and overlooks the much.

A Lord who, if we draw near to Him, He draws near to us.

If we forget Him, He does not forget us.

And if we return to Him,

He honors us and gives to us.

A Lord who, if we come to Him a handspan, He comes to us an arm’s length.

If we come to Him an arm’s length, He comes to us farther than that.

If we come to Him walking,

He comes to us rushing.

A Lord who does not tear away our covering.

A Lord who does not seize us immediately for every crime.

A Lord who appreciates and forgives.

Surely He is able.

A Lord who is more merciful to us than our mothers, and more merciful to us than our children.

A Lord who gives generously and graciously,

who gives and grants,

who forgives and pardons,

and who rejoices in our repentance.

O Allah...

from us tonight: regret,

and seeking forgiveness;

and from You: pardon,

mercy, and forgiveness.

O Allah, make us among those whom the caller will call on the Day of Judgment:

For you is everlasting delight.

You will live and never die.

You will be healthy and never fall ill.

You will be blessed and never be miserable.

The pleasure of your Lord will descend upon you,
and He will never be displeased with you again.
Our Lord... our Lord...
If in Your eternal knowledge You have written that this night of ours is better than a thousand months, then O Allah do not leave for us in it a single sin except that You forgive it, nor a worry except that You relieve it,
nor a hardship except that You ease it,
nor a sick person except that You heal him, nor a person under trial except that You grant him well-being,
nor a confused person except that You guide him,
nor a lost person except that You guide him back.
Do not leave anyone far from You, far from his wife and child, except that You bring him close.
Do not leave a parent except that You honor them.
Do not leave a child except that You rectify them.
Do not leave a single man or woman except that You bless them with marriage.
Do not leave a husband except that You help him and soften his heart.
Do not leave anyone absent from his mother or sister except that You return him.

Do not leave any deceased person except that You show him mercy and admit him into Your Paradise.
Do not leave any sad and hopeless person except that You make him happy.
Do not leave anyone far from his home except that You give him patience and enrich him.
Do not leave any homeland except that You grant it safety.
Do not leave any lost right except that You restore it.
Do not leave any oppressed person except that You support him.
Do not leave any oppressor except that You humiliate him.
Do not leave anyone alone except that You bring him comfort.
Do not leave anyone in despair except that You renew him.
Do not leave any difficulty except that You make it easy.
Do not leave any poor person except that You enrich him.
Do not leave any home from the homes of the Muslims except that You fill it with happiness.
Do not leave anyone unable to have children except that You bless them.
Do not leave any debt except that You allow it to be paid.
Do not leave any condition except that You repair it.

Do not leave any harm inside our bodies except that You remove it.

Do not leave any righteous duʿā’ except that You raise it and accept it.

O Allah, whatever You have decreed in these last ten nights and in Laylat al-Qadr of goodness, provision, well-being, safety, security, peace, and protection, then give us the greatest share of it — and give it to our parents, our families, our homeland, and all the Muslims.

And whatever You have decreed in it of hardship, trial, fitnah, a bad ending, fear, or illness, O Allah turn it away from us, from our parents, from our families, from our homeland, and from all the Muslims.

O Allah, let no one be left out from this gift, and let no one be excluded from it.

O Allah, heal every sick person among us, heal every sick loved one we have, and heal the sick among all the Muslims.

O Allah, raise us and them to the station of complete well-being.

Wipe over us and over them with Your healing right hand, and with Al-Fatihah, the healing cure.

Our Lord, show tenderness to the Muslims.

Show mercy to the state of the Muslims.

Relieve the Muslims.

O Allah, spread mercy and love between the Muslims.

O Allah, protect the lands and the sacred places of the Muslims.

Unite the word of the Muslims.

Honor Islam and the Muslims.

Honor Islam and the Muslims.

Honor Islam and the Muslims.

And have mercy on our dead and the dead among the Muslims.

O Allah, set the oppressors against one another,

the hypocrites against one another,

those who break away against one another,

and those who secretly work corruption against one another.

And bring the Muslims, their lands, and their leaders out from among them safe, protected, and victorious.

O Protector of the believers...

Our Lord, every night You free people from the Fire — then what must Your freeing be in these nights of giving and hope?

O Allah, this is the standing of the one who seeks refuge in You from rejection, humiliation, anger, and the Fire.

O Allah, when a generous one is asked to pardon, he pardons.

When he is asked, he gives.

When he is called, he responds.

And You are more generous than every generous one,

and more merciful than every merciful one.

O Allah, You are Pardoning and You love pardon, so pardon us.

O Allah, You are Pardoning and You love pardon, so pardon us.

So pardon us.

Pardon us.

O Allah, free our necks from the Fire.

O Allah, make us forbidden to the Fire and make the Fire forbidden for us.

O Allah, and also our parents,

our families, our wives, our children,

those who love us and those whom we love,

those we remembered and those we forgot,

those who asked us to make duʿā' for them and those whom we promised to remember in duʿā'.

Write for us complete safety and complete salvation.

O Allah, and everyone who cared for us, and everyone who said Āmīn.

Our Lord… our Lord…

We flee to You from ourselves, so pardon us.

We flee to You from our worries, so relieve us.

We flee to You from our fears, so grant us safety.

We flee to You from our illnesses, so heal us.

We flee to You from our heedlessness, so wake us up.

We flee to You from our sins, so accept our repentance.

We flee to You from the Fire.

We flee to You from the Fire.

We flee to You from the Fire, so free us from it.

By Your mercy, O Most Merciful of the merciful.
