

Our Lord...

O You who created the earth and the highest heavens.

O You who knows what is hidden and what is even more hidden.

O You to whom belong the most beautiful names.

O You who gave everything its form, and then guided it.

O Allah, send peace and blessings upon our Prophet Muhammad and upon those who follow his path.

O Allah, we seek refuge in You from the evil within ourselves,
from the harm of others,
and from the harm of anything You have created, our Lord.

We seek refuge in You from the harm of what crawls on its belly,
from what walks on two legs,
and from what walks on four.

O Lord of our souls and every breath we take...

Protect us and our families from the harm of jinn and human beings.

Make us among those who will have no fear and no sadness.

Protect us from every direction.

Protect what is seen of us and what is hidden inside us.

Protect us from one another, and even from ourselves.

And place a barrier between us and anyone who wishes to harm us.

O Allah, grant us protection that no wind can shake and no weapon can pierce.

Protect us and protect our homes.

Put out every fire meant for us.

Turn away every evil person from us.

Cover us with Your protection.

Grant us stability, safety, and peace in our lives.

Watch over us by night and by day,

O Mighty, O Powerful.

Protect us in our homes,

in our masjids,

in our markets,

on our roads,

and in every situation of our lives.

Relieve our hardships and the hardships of all Muslims.

Do not burden us with what we cannot carry.

O Allah, we ask You for the goodness of every morning,

the goodness of every evening,

the goodness of every decree You write for us.

And we seek refuge in You from the harm of the morning,

the harm of the evening,

and the harm of what is written for us.

Give us more good than we even hope for.

Turn away from us every form of evil.

O Allah, protect us from going astray or being led astray,

from slipping or causing others to slip,

from ظلم or being wronged,

from ignorance or being treated with ignorance, and from committing a sin that we fail to repent from.

O Allah, make obedience beloved to us and to our youth.

Make unity beloved to us.

Keep us far from trials, confusion, misguidance, and deception.

Protect us from years of hardship and false promises.

Grant us a true understanding of Islam.

Make us people who spread peace.

Make us callers to goodness, advising others sincerely through our character, our actions, and the purity of our hearts.

Forgive us all tonight.

Forgive the one among us who falls short.

Surround our deceased and the deceased among the Muslims with Your mercy.

Heal our sick and the sick among the Muslims.

O Allah, Lord of Muhammad ﷺ...

Protect the faces of the men and women present here from the Fire.

Protect from the Fire those who came to us—near or far.

Those who saw us and said “ameen” to our du‘ā’.

Those who love us, forgive us, and wish good for us.

Those who wanted to stand with us.

By Your mercy, O Most Merciful.

O Allah, grant us all Your love.

Grant us Your Paradise.

Grant us the honor of seeing You.

And grant us the companionship of Your Prophet
