

Our Lord...

O the One who shows the beautiful in us and covers what is ugly.

O the One whose forgiveness is vast.

O the One whose hands are always open with mercy.

O the One who hears every private whisper.

O the One to whom every complaint finally returns.

Our Master, our Protector, the One we long for the most.

O Allah, send Your peace and blessings upon our Prophet and our beloved.

O Allah, protect us from the influence of Shayṭān,
from the changes of time,

from the turning of hearts among those close to us,
and from the harm that can come from our own souls.

You are the One who takes our souls when their time comes.

Their life and their death belong to You.

If You allow them to live, then protect them.

And if You take them back to You, then forgive them.

O Allah, we ask You for purity, forgiveness, and well-being in our religion, our lives, our families, and our wealth.

O Allah, cover our faults.

Calm our fears.

Protect us from in front of us, from behind us, from our right and from our left, and from above us.

And we seek refuge in Your greatness from being destroyed from beneath us.

O Allah, we seek refuge in You from the loss of Your blessings,

from the removal of the well-being You have given us,
from sudden punishment,

and from anything that brings Your anger.

O Allah, grant us hearts that are pure and mindful of You—hearts that are clean, sincere, and peaceful,
hearts free from disbelief, doubt, and misery.

Our Lord...

You have always been gentle with us.

You made things easy for us.

You blessed us and healed our brokenness.

You saw our faults and covered them.

You gave to us and honored us.

Our Lord, if we obey You, it is only because of Your grace.

And if we disobey You, it is because of our ignorance.

So keep Your grace flowing upon us,
and overlook our weakness and our mistakes.

O Allah, make us among those who enjoy closeness to You and who find joy in loving You.

Keep us always under Your protection.

Do not lift Your covering from us.

Help us remember You, thank You, and worship You in the best way.

Our Lord...

We know that You see us.

You have power over us.

You surround us with Your hearing, Your sight, and Your knowledge.

So forgive us.

Have mercy on us.

Pardon us.

Free us from punishment.

Be generous to us and overlook what You know about us.

You know everything about us...

and we know so little.

You are the Most Mighty, the Most Generous.

Our Lord...

You know what is hidden inside our hearts,
while we do not know what is hidden in Your decree.

You alone know all that is unseen.

O Allah, forgive our sins.

Forgive our sins.

O Lord of generosity and kindness, do not leave for us any need in this life or the next—
any need that brings You pleasure and brings us goodness—except that You fulfill it for us and make it easy for us, by Your grace, Your generosity, Your gentleness, and Your mercy.

Tonight we ask You for ourselves, for our families,
and for all Muslim men and women:

O Allah, heal every sick person.

Heal every sick person.

Return every absent loved one safely.

Grant relief to everyone who is suffering.

Bring joy to every saddened heart.

Make every difficulty easy for us.

Have mercy on everyone who has passed away.

Relieve every worried soul.

Pay off the debts of those who are struggling.

Open the chest of those who feel tight and overwhelmed.

And mend the broken hearts of those who are hurting.

For You, O Allah, all of this is easy.
